

MADEIRA WINE TOUR

Madeira wine has travelled a lot, it has gone around the world time and time again, on the way the masses fell in love with its taste and its smell, with some even choosing to use it as a perfume.

Our world-renowned wine, was chosen by George Washington and Thomas Jefferson to celebrate the independence of the United States, was celebrated in the works of Shakespeare and so the story goes, was a key factor in Winston Churchill's frequent visits?

On this trip, we go from grape to glass, travelling through dramatic landscapes, experiencing and tasting some of the finest wines the Island has to offer.
